

MY LOOK AT LIFE

I consider myself a “Divine Naturist Christian” – a label of my own making, so to speak. I believe that an Infinite God must be in everything and everyone, making everywhere Heaven if Heaven is defined as “being in the presence of God.”

We are all saints, but we don’t know it – and, thus, do not act like it. I consider myself Christian in that I believe Christ believed and taught the same – based largely on the mostly unknown Gospels of Thomas and Mary Magdalene, effectively banned by church and state in the 4th Century for challenging a need for authority for salvation. All my works argue accordingly and can be acquired if desired via my websites:

una-bella-vita.com and francisbessler.com.

Consider a description of a work via my websites to judge if a work seems acceptable or not. OK?

From my song called

NEW WORLD COMIING

Written April 25th, 2020 – May 23rd, 2020

I believe it is sad
that we fail to realize that all must be Divine
simply because an Infinite God
in all must reside.
It cannot be that God
blesses some
and leaves others in a lurch
when, in truth, God must BE in All
and All must Be - GOD'S CHURCH!

WE'RE ALL DIVINE BEINGS

REFRAIN:

We're all Divine Beings - you and I.
We're all Divine Beings - and that's no lie.
We're all Divine Beings -
and that should be our pride
because within Divinity, we all reside.

Life is a mystery - there is no doubt of that;
but everything's Divine; and that's a simple fact.
There is no place where God can't be;
and that makes us all members of a Divine Family.
*Refrain.

There can be no sin - anywhere in life -
unless we create it by living in strife.
Sin is that which we create when we fail to know that each of us is Divine from head to toe.
*Refrain.

Heaven is only living - like everything's Divine,
regardless of temperament, regardless of mind.
Hold your head up high - and with life, have fun.
You're a daughter - or a son - of the Living One.
*Refrain.

Look out at life and know it's all the same.
If God's in all, all should be acclaimed.
To treat anything like it's less than you
is to live in arrogance and outside the truth.
*Refrain.

The truth is God's Kingdom is Everywhere
and that should make us all want to care
about each other as we pass through life,
knowing that we're all children of the Light.
Refrain (several times).

When Jesus said that Heaven is at hand, did he mean Now or on the other hand, meaning later – and/or elsewhere?
Is Heaven “temple oriented” or “Nature oriented”?
I believe Heaven should be lived Now (And Forever)
and is “Nature Oriented” because an Infinite God Is in All of Nature, Including ourselves;
but as it has been for the ages, It is for each
to decide on their own – keeping in mind that as we choose in this life, it is likely we will be inclined to continue that choice in a future incarnation.
And that is what you could call “judgment.”
God cannot judge us because, being Infinite and Everywhere, it must be in us – wherever and whatever we are. Jesus cannot judge us because he taught us not to judge one another when he lived – and it would be pure folly to consider Jesus could judge us in some future setting, simply because he knows that would never be right. That is my belief.
We judge ourselves by how we act. It is all up to us!

Thank You!

Have A Good Life!
